A politically well connected organization that promotes abstinence education has received a major federal grant under the President's AIDS program despite its proposal having been rated "not suitable for funding" by an independent review panel.

Documents and Links

- Letter to Global AIDS Coordinator
- Follow Up Letter to Randall Tobias, Global AIDS Coordinator